DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on July 31, 2006 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of any patent resulting from US Patent Application 10/623,201 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Specification

2. The specification is objected to as failing to provide proper antecedent basis for the claimed subject matter. See 37 CFR 1.75(d)(1) and MPEP § 608.01(o). Correction of the following is required: a metal cut seal claimed in claims 7 and 14 is not defined in the specification.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 7 and 14 objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. According to applicant's arguments dated July 31, 2006, the "metal cut seal" is defined by three previously claimed elements, the shield, ring and pointed edge. Claims 7 and 14 do not introduce any new structure and therefore failure to further limit the claim from which they depend.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

5. Claims 7 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a hydrodynamic bearing and motor with a seal, does not reasonably provide enablement for a metal cut seal. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims.

The specification does not disclose what a metal cut seal is. The examiner does not understand of what significance this type of seal is with regard to the invention.

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1 and 8 recite the limitation "a recess having a pointed edge with an acute angle", and it is unclear how the edge has an angle. An 'edge' as defined by Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, 10th edition is, "a line or line segment that is the intersection of two plane faces". To better define this limitation the Examiner suggests the following language: --a recess defining with the top surface of the sleeve, an acute angle, which defines a pointed edge--.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 1-14 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Response to Arguments

9. Applicant's arguments filed July 31, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The subject matter of the independent claims is indicated as allowable pending amendment to correct rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112.

Regarding claims 7 and 14, applicants argument is insufficient to overcome the rejection under the 1st paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112 because the specification does not provide definition for a "metal cut seal", which is not a recognized term that one of ordinary skill in the art would recognize. Applicant's definition of the metal cut seal is made up of elements that are previously claimed and therefore would fail to further limit the claim from which it depends since the parent claim would inherently have a "metal cut seal" by claiming the three elements in the particular orientation claimed.

Conclusion

10. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
